

Riverstown Catholic Church

Description

Church of the Sacred Heart is a Roman Catholic Church built in 1940.

The Bell Tower of the church was badly infected by an extensive growth of red algae. The surface was cleaned by SURFASCLEAN Fungicidal Wash prior to the use of SurfaPore C as a water repellent for the long term protection of the structure.

Details

Type of Job	Restoration and preservation of the Church
Products	SURFASCLEAN Fungicidal Wash, SurfaPore C
Main Contractors	Felix McHugh Builders Limited
Location	Riverstown, Co. Sligo
Construction Completion	2016

Riverstown Catholic Church

Similar projects carried out using SurfaPore C and SURFASCLEAN Fungicidal Wash:

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

Glenfarne, Co. Leitrim

(soft yellow sandstone)

St. Clare's Church

Manorhamilton, Co. Leitrim

(blue limestone)